At one time or another, we were individuals. Each of us with the potential to become something bigger. At the beginning of our high school career, we were all dispersed throughout different areas. Some of us at the same school, in the same town, while others came from alternate villages, towns, and schools on Cape Cod. While some of us not even in this state or country. During this time we matured; we began to become who we were meant to be. It wasn't until we entered high school that we all came together, finding our foundation that would provide us with the tools we needed to strive for the next five years. Whether that was a helpful teacher, a motivating coach, a supportive friend or a loving parent, Barnstable High School became a home for us, one that will always be in our hearts as we embark upon the future.

This yearbook serves as a reminder, a source to look back on our shared memories. However, the memories didn't start on these pages; they started with us. Each individual student played their own role in creating the memories and the time spent together in high school. It was us who made the memories found throughout these pages. From assembling our time capsule in eighth grade year, to the countless performances put on by our own hard working and talented classmates, to the heartfelt victories and families formed on the sports fields, our individual uniqueness and personalities paved the way for our time here at Barnstable. We've heard D1's message, supported our classmates from the stands as we watch the volleyball and gymnastics teams win championships, watched as our clubs travel as far as nationals in competitions, and witnessed the wonderful productions including Godspell, Gatsby, and Into the Woods put on by our peers. We've all made our mark here physically and mentally. Walking through the halls, and listening every morning on B2BTV, we still see all the beautiful artwork crafted by the people we see daily. Barnstable wasn't just a learning environment, however, but a place where you'd see a friend in the hallway and share a smile, form deeper relationships with teachers, and pursue extra curriculars. Some of our most meaningful relationships and most cherished friends were created here, some that we will carry with us through our futures. Here, we chose to embrace both the learning aspect of this experience while making lifelong friends that high school has to offer along the way.

This year, we trace the tree of life throughout this book. From the seedling that we all were in eighth grade year, to the almost fully matured tree that we are now in our senior year, we explore the deeper meaning behind our choice in theme. The tree of life signifies a deeper connection with the world as well as conceptual growth. When a branch of a tree breaks, it will grow back as a fresh new branch that has weathered the elements before, now even stronger than ever. As a unified class, we've had our ups and downs, we've experienced the rough patches of the sea, but now as we look back on our journey we can see that through it all, today we are much closer and our strength as a class has grown immensely. In many cases, the tree of life has also been connected to Charles Darwin reflecting the idea of evolution. As a tree, the typical stages of evolution include seed, sprout, development of branches and leaves, and a fully matured tree. In high school, we ourselves go through a type of evolution. When we first entered this institution, we were naive, we didn't know what to expect in this daunting new environment. As we moved up in grade levels, we began to evolve, understanding what was expected of us and beginning to find our roots. When we hit junior year, the college process began to kick in for us. We began to grow to a fully matured tree, college applications done awaiting admission decisions as we are preparing to go on to college. We are all our own tree of life. We have reached our potential, fully grown, and ready to brace the world.

Even though we may not be the class that we were when we walked through the doors the beginning of eighth grade year, today we are joined together, 333 students, branches intertwined, as Barnstable High School's senior class of 2018.

The background of the entire page is a large, stylized red fingerprint. The ridges of the fingerprint are oriented diagonally from the top-left towards the bottom-right. The color is a vibrant red, and the lines are white, creating a high-contrast pattern.

IN THEIR HOLIDAY SWEATER ATTIRE!

Growing Memories

What are your plans after you "leaf" BHS?

"Go to college and then law school."

How have you "branched" out?

"I teach my parents English, since it's not their first language. I give them support."

Who lifted you up when you were down?

"My friends. Even if they can't fix my problems, they still make me laugh."
- Smit Patel

What keeps you rooted?

"My dad kept me rooted, by staying in touch when he traveled."

Who helped you grow?

"Maggie McCormack. She encourages me to do better every single day."

Tell us about the fruits of your labor.

"I went on a mission trip to Virginia and I did a highway clean up with my church."

How do you embrace your natural beauty?

"Enhancing the features I love about me is what makes my natural beauty shine."

What keeps you rooted?

"Caffeine. Knowing that there's more to life than high school drama..."

Who helped you grow?

"My parents and friends because they were someone to lean on."

Where do you hang?

"Wherever the fun is."
- Cole Duffy

Tell us about the fruits of your labor.

"Just donating clothes and money. Doing something nice everyday makes me happy."

Where are your roots?

"Ecuador. I grew up there and it's where I left most of my friends."

What are your plans after you "leaf" BHS?

"I am planning to go to a four year college to major in pre-med."
- Ana Nascimento

What made you grow?

"I grew up around violence, but I learned how to be good."
- Zackery Campbell

Who lifted you up when you were down?

"My mom. She is always there to help up when the world tries to knock me down."
- Kellyn Dos Santos

How do you embrace your natural beauty?

"Try to love myself without makeup."

What keeps you rooted?

"Wednesdays at Starbucks."

Greatest Comeback of All Time

Admit it, you were sitting there confused and upset because the Patriots were behind 28-3. You were ready to turn the TV off and go to bed, but then, the unthinkable happened. All of a sudden, we were watching the first overtime game in Super Bowl history. Anticipation crept up and we were all on the edge of our seats, watching and waiting. The match up between the coaches and the quarterbacks was intense and exceeded expectations. As James White barely made it into the end-zone, it was all over and the Patriots were the best football team in the world. Tom Brady delivered a masterpiece that placed him firmly at the top of the best quarterbacks of all time. The Patriots then came back to New England and celebrated like there was no tomorrow.

Stand Up, Speak Out

At the beginning of October, 2017, multiple women came forward and accused Harvey Weinstein of sexual assault. This began a chain reaction across the nation. Since the beginning of the allegations, this topic has been grabbing the attention of many media outlets; showcasing 34 men accused of sexually violating acts, including Matt Lauer, Kevin Spacey, Ben Affleck, and former President George H.W. Bush.

Fallen Florida Students

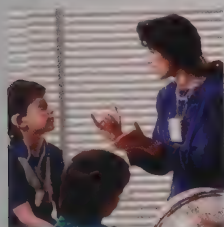

On February 14, 2018, during the late afternoon, Majory Stoneham Douglas High School fire alarms went off and students exited their classrooms thinking it was just a drill, not knowing that a gunman pulled the alarm to lure them out of their classrooms. Nikolas Cruz, a 19 year old Majory Stoneham Douglas High School graduate, opened fire and killed seventeen students and staff. Schools around the nation are planning walk-outs, and moments of silence on March 14, 2018 from 10:00-10:17 A.M. to memorialize the 17 students and staff who left their families that morning never imagining they wouldn't return home.

Change in Courses

The 2017-2018 course load for the graduating class, in the simplest terms, was trial and error. Many were apprehensive about the semesterised English classes, including the faculty. There were pros and cons, but they are planning to diminish semesterised English for the next American Sign Language is a that had been added to the course catalogue and it seems students are enjoying what they're learning. The class of 2019 will also be experiencing schedule changes next year.

Renovations

Over these next couple of years, Barnstable High School is planning to undergo some renovations, inside and out. They plan to make it a spacious library with resources available to all. Administration also plans to renovate the sports fields to make each field a multipurpose field for different outdoor sports. They are hoping to avoid field scheduling conflicts between the many sports that fit into one season. Renovations will begin next year, and the school is hoping that this will aid students not only in their academics, but with athletics as well.

JUUL Epidemic

The JUUL is a vaping device that is packed with more nicotine than a cigarette, and it's truly an epidemic on college and high school campuses. Students have been caught with these devices around the nation. They resemble a flash drive and can be charged by USB port. The makers have left us wondering - what are the long term effects of this device?

Traditions are Breaking

This year was the year of firsts for Barnstable High School and the world, including the first solar eclipse in 99 years, Donald Trump was the first President elected to office with no political experience prior to the election, and the first time Barnstable High School changed long-time traditions. Instead of women wearing white gowns and men wearing red at the graduation ceremony, we will all wear red. This has been a part of Barnstable High School traditions since its founding in 1889. Many students were upset with this news and formed a petition in favor of the red and white gowns, instead of simply red. Another tradition being broken is the daily themes during Spirit Week. Some days during our beloved Spirit Week were found offensive to some, including U.S.A. Day, Decade Day, and Twin Day. The days that were kept were Formal Day and Class Color Day. There is no indication of change in the future.

TEACHER APPRECIATION

For the sixth year in a row, the Barnstable High School football team asked a staff member who made a positive impact in their four years at Barnstable to wear their white jersey to school. Not only did the staff display their pride at school, they showed their support under the Friday night lights. This tradition holds a remarkable place in our hearts.

Behind the Scenes

As a senior looking back on your drama experience, what has been the most memorable aspect of drama for you?

"Standing on stage to take my bow as Taylor McKessie, an iconic part from HSM and hearing everyone cheer for me." -Caroline Martone

"Definitely opening night of High School Musical. The P.A.C. was full of people and I've never been more nervous for anything in my life." -Harry McDonald

Alyssa Martin

What does being a part of the drama program mean to you?

"It's being part of a community that is full of acceptance and love while we all do something that we love." -Alyssa Martin

"Being part of a project formed by the expression of a great many individuals offering their own unique skills and passions."

-Joe Lennon Phillips

What was your favorite performance and why?

"The Women of Lockerbie! I was double cast with my best friend and we had the best time developing our character and goofing off."

-Keely Fravel

"Sharpay in HSM because she was super sassy plus I met my best friend Sydney through the show process and now I don't know what I would do without her." -Brooke Poirier

Do you do anything drama/musically related out of school?

"I sing and do performances at Four C's and other venues because I was a singer before joining the drama club." -Brooke Poirier

"I train my voice and have been involved in a few different out of school productions!" -Maddie Lamothe

"I've been participating in community theatre since I was 8 years old! I love acting, and I'm very excited to be pursuing it as a career - it's so challenging, but so worth it." -Nora Canaday

Is there anything you would like to say to other members or adult figures that have been role models during your time in the drama club?

"Thank you for introducing me to some of my closest and best friends. Without this club, I wouldn't be the person I am today. I would love to thank everyone for the invaluable things they have taught me over the years." -Maddie Lamothe

"Thank you. Thank you thank you thank you for bringing me to my best friends. You all taught me how to work hard and speak with conviction and move with purpose and laugh. I am so grateful." -Keely Fravel

"I will forever be grateful for the last five years of my life. I try to come up with the right quotation, but I keep coming up empty. This club has shaped me more than anything else in High School. Sooooo thanks!!!!" -Matt Geiler

Dear Rebecca,

It's with great joy in our hearts that we are here to tell you how happy we are for you!

Congratulations on your graduation. We know that through your hard work, you will change the world! God has honored you in so many ways and He will not stop, you are more of a conqueror through Him.
Dream big, fight even when the circumstances are against you, do not forget that God will strengthen you, and we will always be praying for you. Make good decisions! You can count on us and we will be there for you... Congratulations, we are so proud of you.

Love, Mom, Dad, and your Big Brother!

We love you!...

Keely,

From your first day of school to your last, you have worked hard and made us so proud!

Continue to be fearless.
Continue to be relentless.
Continue to be you.

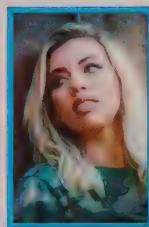

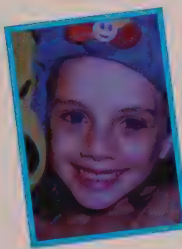

Congratulations
 with all of our love,

Mom, Dad, Caitlin, Colin, Dobby, and your soulmate, Fuzz

We cannot believe you're graduating in the USA!
 We're so sorry that we took you away from your family and friends, but we moved for your dreams, so one day you could be a doctor and go to the army, sometimes you must think that we made a mistake, but through all this, we saw you growing and overcoming every single situation, you learned English, you made friends, and now more than ever you're so close to live this new chapter. Keep your eyes on the Lord and don't forget very soon you'll be using your quote for real "It's a beautiful days to save lives" and we'll be so happy for you. Your smile and your happiness means everything to us! You'll always be our baby, we are so proud of you, Congratulations!

Love, Mom & Dad

SAVING

MR. FRANCIS

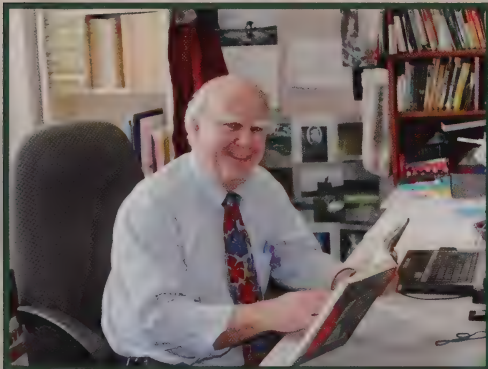

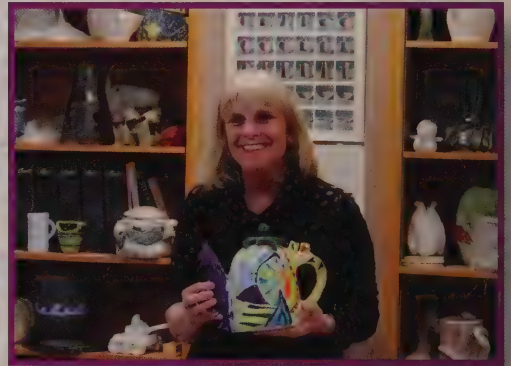

What is your favorite BHS memory?

Watching the pig pile on Max Francis after the Boys Tennis Team clinched the Division 1 State Championship at St. John's Prep in Shrewsbury on June 18, 2015.

MRS. JOHNSON

What will you miss most about BHS?

The "aha" moments when students center clay, throw a pot, or create a work of art they never thought possible. I am going to miss watching the students with special needs work with the mainstream students to develop friendships, nurture creativity, and discover they are more alike than different.

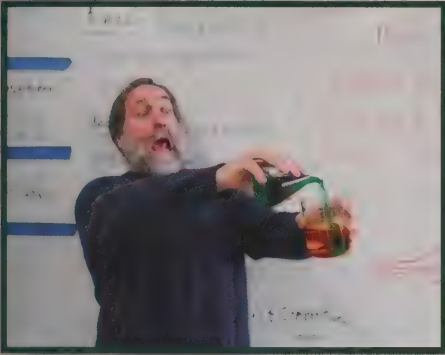

MR. WOLLAK

What is something you want to say to your students?

Find something to do for which you have a passion. Talk face to face with people as much as possible and explore the natural world.

GOODBYE

MR. WINGARD

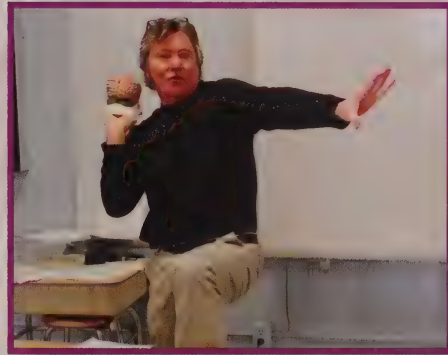

What is the funniest thing you have heard at BHS?

"No really, my dog did eat my homework!"

MR. GOODE

Where do you see yourself in five years?

As the team psychologist for the New England Patriots, so I can work closely with Tom Brady.

MR. MALEC

What will you miss most about BHS?

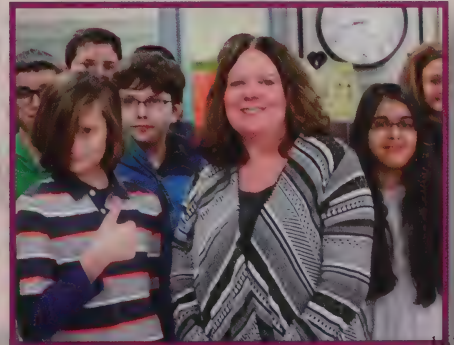

As I doppel into the sunset, I will really miss several things at BHS: the great energy and diversity of our staff and the wonderful friendships I have made, and the fun I had teaching the E.S.L. Beginners for eight years.

MS. BREakey

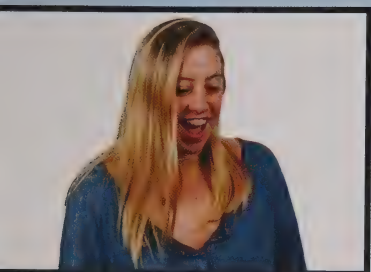

What are you looking forward to most during retirement?

Sleeping until I wake up (no alarms), exploring the Cape and of course reading!
